WRITTEN BY TWINKLE TOES THE ELF

Our Marketing and Education department is looking for keen candidates to bring our storytelling and team spirit back to Conkers for the Christmas Season!

We deliver 20/30 minute experiences bringing our Conkers Winter Wonderland stories to life. When you are in costume and interacting in character, your outgoing and proactive personality is required for every shift! Would suit Performing Arts Students, Real Elves, or Someone With A Passion For Delivering Entertainment

We require:

- The confidence to deal with challenging situations
- An outgoing personality and willingness to become part of developing our guests experience!
- A health and safety conscious individual who is focused and driven
- Excellent communication skills
- A great sense of fun!

You will be working to pre-recorded tracks, learning scripts and movements, as well as supporting other departments when necessary for the needs of the business throughout the season.

Your role will consist of taking it in turns to present the shows on site and also being able to jump into any characters shoes (literally!)

The tours delivered throughout the day will include keeping the magic alive for our guests! You must be willing to learn technical elements of the tours to ensure you are always improving the product and supporting new ideas is a must. Rehearsals for shows are in the evenings and this role is based outdoors.
